The kitchen as a communal space

“I gave up on buying bread,” says Nicole Beck, a 29-year-old public-relations manager living solo in Austin, Texas. “I’m always so annoyed that the loaf goes stale before I can use it all.”

Percentage of single-person households in the U.S.

“One-person
households spend more on food and furnishings”

“Well-being lowest for those who live alone”

Making the kitchen experience delightful again while accommodating to the increasing number of single-person homes.
